Praise God from whom
all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures
here below;
Praise Him above,
ye heav'nly host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost, Amen.

WORDS FROM OUR FOUNDING PASTOR

My dear readers,

(Excerpts from Building Firm Foundations / Daily Remembrancer).

1. Our unseen prayer partners

The secret of prayer is to pray alone in secret (Matt 6:6). It is also to pray together as one body in one place (Acts 1:14). Today we learn another secret: unseen Helpers are praying for us. Our risen and ascended Lord, now at God the Father's right hand "ever liveth to make intercession" for us His children. Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered (Rom 8:26) .

Picture then in your mind's eye the Almighty Triune God in heaven working on our behalf: God the Father receiving intercessions from God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. This one fact alone must give us enormous comfort and confidence to persevere in our prayers on earth - whether individually or corporately. For when we do so we are in concert and cooperation with the great divine prayer meeting up in heaven.

Why do we need the intercession of God the Son and God the Holy Spirit? Simply because we need them to bolster our little strength. Recall what our Lord said? "for without me ye can do nothing" (John 15:5b). We are frail creatures of flesh, and oftentimes our spirit is willing but the flesh is weak. Without Him we would fall. So we need to have our prayers on earth supplemented by divine intercessions in heaven.

Those divine intercessions are necessary also because of our foolishness and defective understanding, so that we do not always know what to pray for. Do you not realise how often your prayers are for inconsequential things? At times we may even pray for the wrong things or for something which is contrary to God's will. If God had answered some of those prayers we might have come to grief! So the Spirit helps our infirmities and foolishness.

Give thanks for our unseen Prayer Partners. Thank God that we can be His prayer partners. Our home can be a house of prayer.

It is Christ "... who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us" (Romans 8:34).

2. Make me an intercessor, Lord!

Dr SH Tow

Make me an Intercessor, Lord,
I long to watch and pray;
To wait before Thy Throne of Grace
By night as well as day.

Make me an Intercessor, Lord,
In closest touch with Thee;
And by Thy grace I'll never faint,
But pray till victory.

Make me an Intercessor, Lord,
O help me to prevail;
To persevere, to labour on
Though pow'rs of hell assail.

Make me an Intercessor, Lord,
Conformed unto Thy death;
Emptied, broken, yea crucified,
Then filled with Spirit's breath.

Make me an Intercessor, Lord,
By prayer in everything;
A labourer with Thee my God,
In service of the King.

Make me an Intercessor, Lord,
In secret on the knee.
Unseen, unsung by any man,
But pleasing unto Thee! Amen.

3. “Pray without ceasing” 1 Thess 5:17

(Daily Remembrancer May 6 Morning)

“IN EVERYTHING BY PRAYER AND SUPPLICATION.” Our Father is ever willing to receive us in prayer. In prayer then we must approach God as a Father, ask of Him what we really need, and expect to receive according to His wisdom and will. Our wants are constantly recurring, therefore our prayers should be constantly ascending. The ear of God is always open. He is ever ready to listen to us. He invites, exhorts, and commands us to pray always, in everything. Every object that meets the eye, every circumstance of life, every employment in which we engage, are worthy matters for prayer. The believer should cultivate the habit of prayer. He should look up to God for all he needs, through all he sees, whenever he has a moment to spare. The prayers of a Christian are pleasant to God; He says, “Let me hear thy voice, let me see thy countenance; for sweet is thy voice and thy countenance is comely.” The believer should pray as naturally and as constantly as he breathes, for prayer is the breath of the soul. Beloved, if your prayers dwindle into a mere duty, is but occasionally offered, or become burdensome, it is clear that you are in a most unhealthy state. Pray for revival mercy from God!

Through the skies when the thunder is hurled,
The child to its parent will flee;
Thus amid the clamour of the world,

I turn, O my Father, to Thee;
The spirit of prayer in Thy mercy impart,
And take up Thy constant abode in my heart.

God bless all readers.

Yours faithfully in the Saviour's Service,
Dr SH Tow
